

Recirculating Tank

The Mayo Recirculating Tank utilizes a two step cleaning system to allow for reusing washing water. The water passes through a hydrosieve to remove debris and then is sent through centrifugal cyclones to remove most suspended particles before being pumped back to the wash system or water supply.

Call for Quote